1. JOHNNENE MADDISON
 824 Clearview Ave. N6H 2N2 519 474-7400
johnnemaddison@yahoo.ca
 Exhibiting artist and teacher Johnnene has won awards in Canada and the U.S. and has been published in books and magazines in Canada, the U.S., England and Japan. This year she will be exhibiting watercolour paintings from her recent trip to Italy as well as mixed media and textile art.

2. VIVIAN TSEROTAS – Art Gallery of Lambeth
 2454 Main St., unit #6 N6P 1A9 519 280-2644
vmosaic@msn.com / www.artgalleryoflambeth.com
 From afar, Vivian Tserotas' one-of-a-kind textile art work looks like painting. Her work, which explores the concept of connection and individuality, embodies rich colours, a passion for texture and spontaneity. Also on view will be a selection of mono prints, encaustics and acrylic paintings.

3. CAROL CLARK
 647 Chiddington Ave. N6C 2W6 519 686-2061
carolclarkfineart@gmail.com / www.carolclarkfineart.ca
 Needing to do something different and challenging, Carol began painting in oil this year after more than 25 years of working in watercolour. She has found it energizing and fun to work on mostly landscapes on big canvases. Carol will also be showing watercolours, cards and other small items.

4. ACME ANIMAL
 390 Murray St. N6C 4X4 519 438-2828
acmeanimal@rogers.com
 Acme Animal is Sue Parke, Nancy Clarke, and Don Gidley, a group of artists who work together to produce folk art with an urban sensibility. Their metalwork emphasizes colour and whimsy, and ranges from clocks and candleholders to sculptures.

5. CLIFF KEARNS
 392 Murray St. N6C 4X4 519 432-1074
cliffkearns@rogers.com / www.cliffkearns.com
 Cliff Kearns creates contemporary abstract mixed media paintings. Using mostly recycled materials, the artworks reflect a highly textural look.

6. JESSICA DESPAROIS
 208 Edward St. N6C 3J2 519 433-6859
printmaker@london.com / www.jessicadesparois.yolasite.com
 Jessica is an artist who works primarily in printmaking. Her colourful lino cuts are inspired by her love of all things vintage and her interest in how objects we choose to surround ourselves with define our identity. The former operator of Pretty in Ink now works from her home studio.

7. ROBERTA CORY
 193 Duchess Ave. N6C 1P2 519 601-2053
robertacory@rogers.com / www.robertacory.com
 Roberta returns to the studio tour after five years in Victoria, B.C. She is a three-dimensional artist, whose mixed media constructions are brightly painted with acrylics. Her house is filled with her whimsical pieces including new work inspired by the abandoned Thamesford Mill on Hwy. 2.

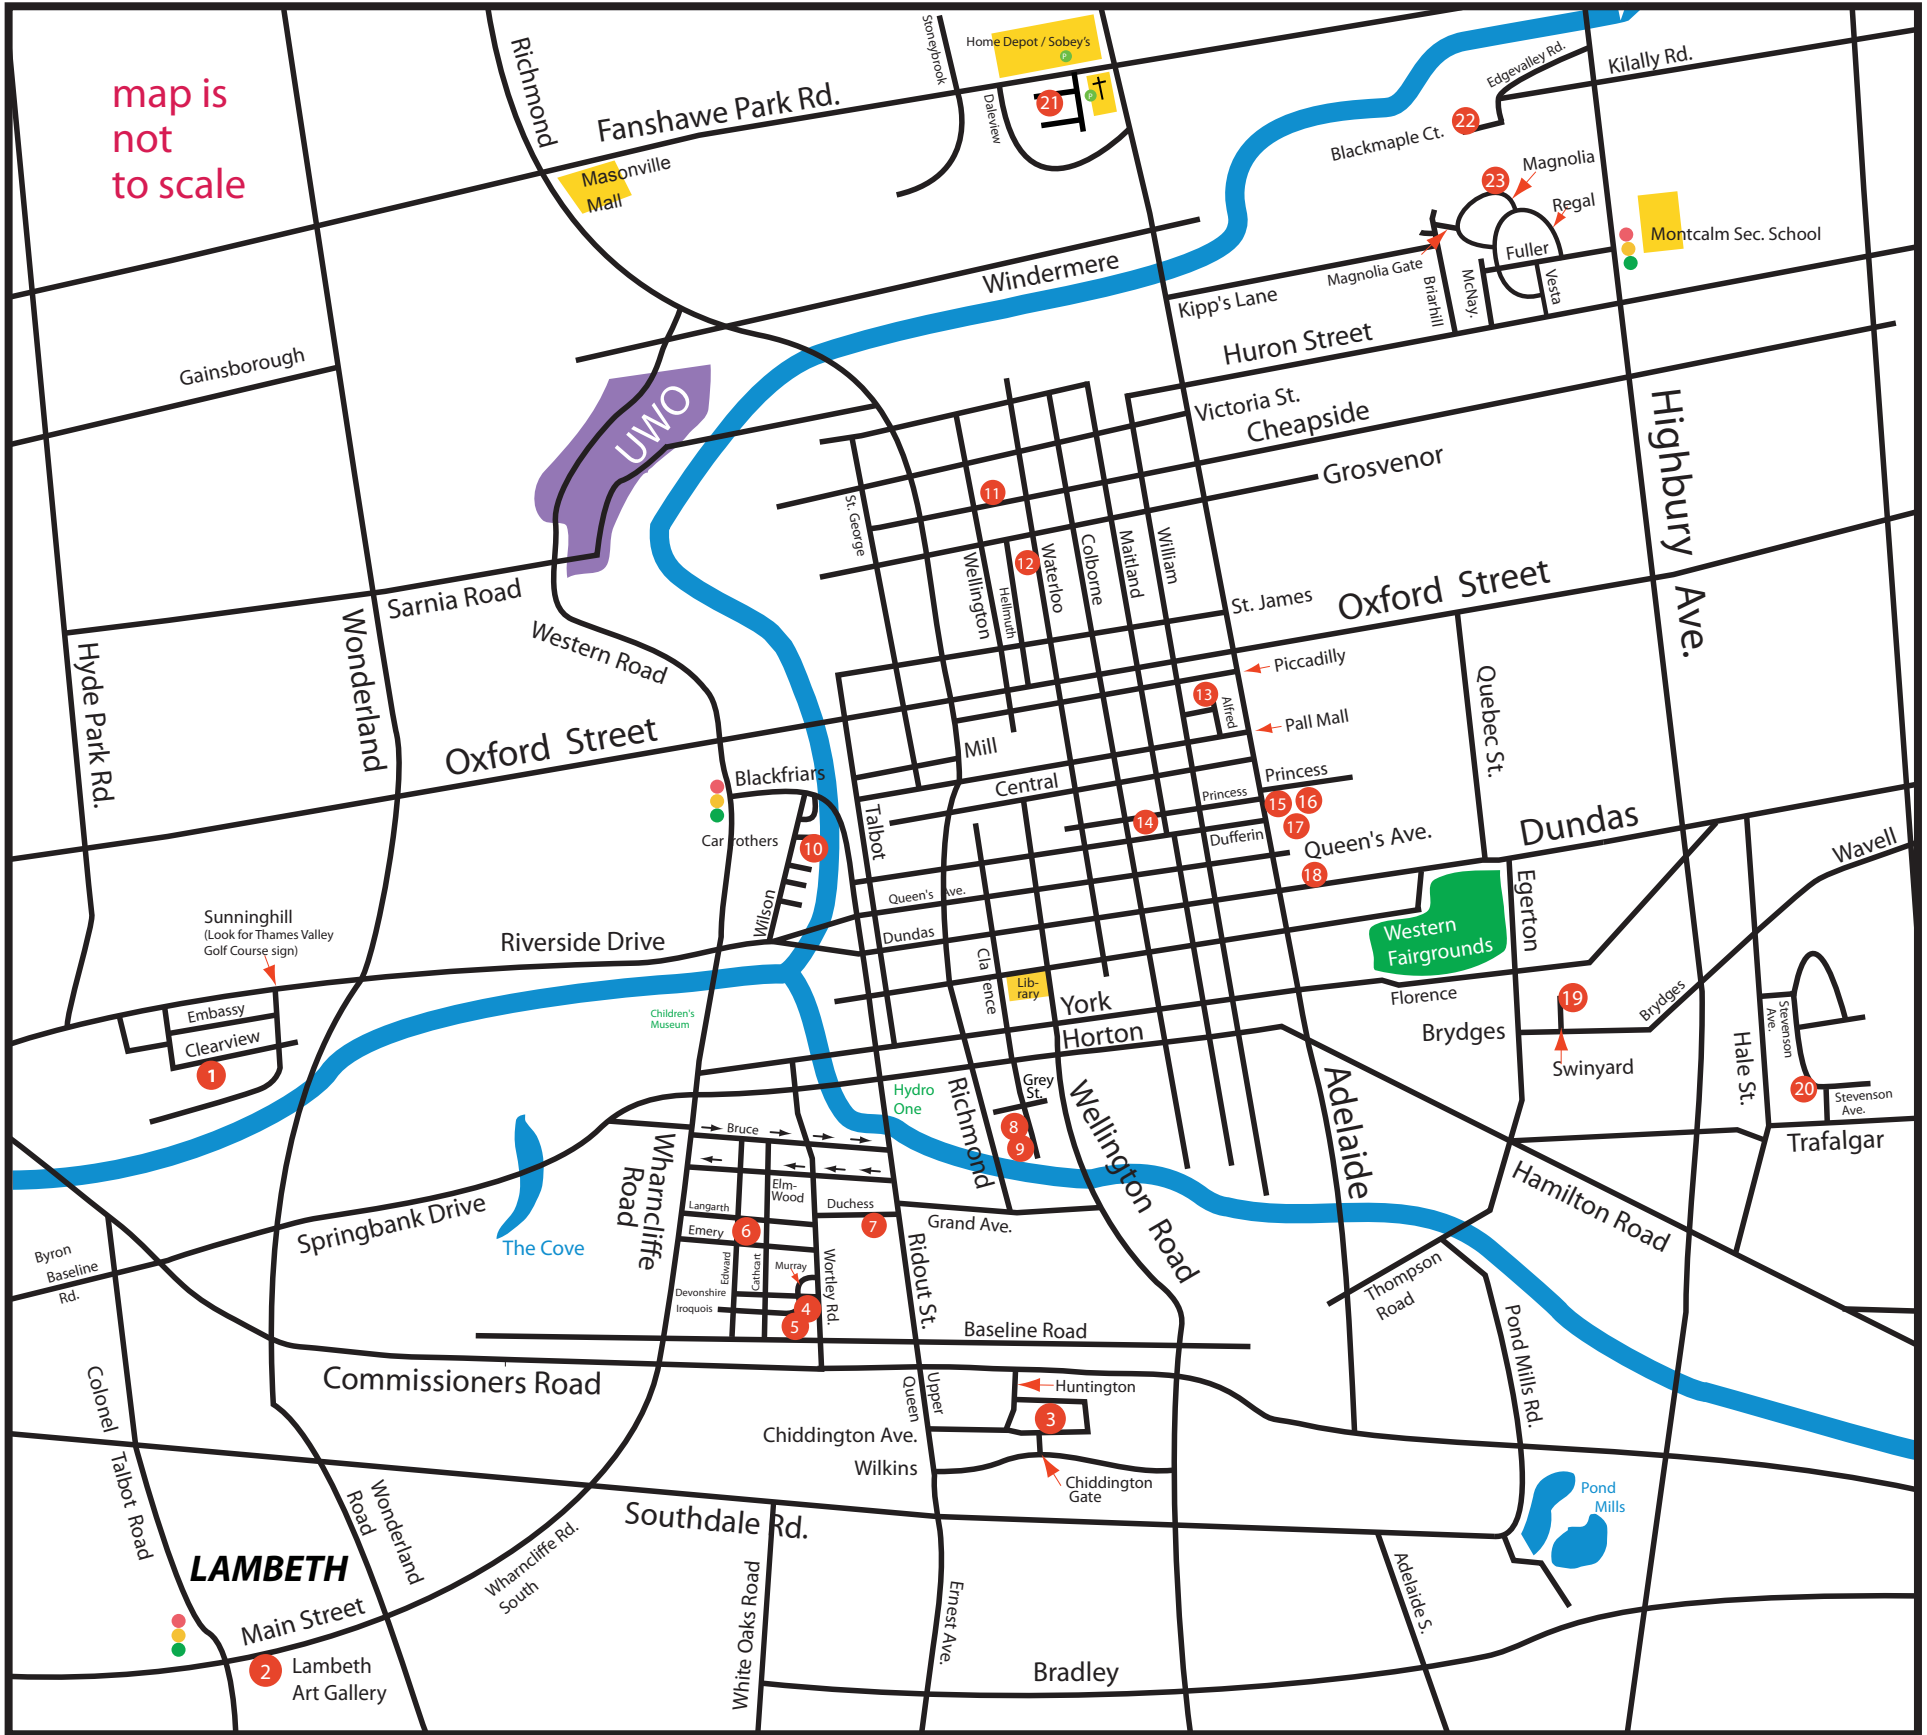

8. PETER KARAS
 155 Clarence St. N6B 2J5 519 672-5220
info@dickandjanart.ca / www.dickandjanart.ca
 Peter Karas paints street scenes and landscapes in a bold, refreshing style. His focus is brilliant harmonious colour and strong graphic compositions. Working primarily in oil and watercolour, Peter's paintings are a feast for the eyes and food for the soul!

9. CORINNE GARLICK
 155 Clarence St. N6B 2J5 519 672-5220
info@dickandjanart.ca / www.dickandjanart.ca
 Step into Corinne Garlick's studio and you'll see street scenes of London, and portraits of the city's inhabitants. Executed in brilliant colour, her paintings are imaginative, expressive and full of vitality. Come and get inspired!

10. SHIRLEY CLEMENT
 2 Carrothers Ave. N6H 1J5 519 672-4694
shirleyclement@hotmail.com / www.onlyconnect.ca
 Colour is Shirley's passion. From her attic full of wool, alpaca, silk, llama, mohair etc., she weaves multi-textured pillows in several sizes. She also makes vibrant sculpted scarves. Shirley loves to do commissions, and would be pleased to work with your own special colours.

LONDON ARTISTS' STUDIO TOUR

Welcome to the London Artists' Studio Tour 2012. We invite you into our working spaces, to browse and learn more about the creative process. This is a self-guided tour and is free of charge. The numbers beside each artist's name correspond to those numbers on the map. Watch for tour signs and balloons at each location. Friday night is OPENING NIGHT. Come early for refreshments and first choice of work.

11. MARGARETHE VANDERPAS
 280 Cheapside St. N6A 2A2 519 433-2840
info@margarethe-vanderpas.com / www.margarethe-vanderpas.com
 Margarethe draws inspiration for her landscape and waterscape paintings from many sources: the waters and limestone cliffs of the Bruce Peninsula and the shorelines of the Canadian Shield on Lake Superior and Georgian Bay. Each year she explores these regions on foot and by kayak. Margarethe's work can be found in corporate and private collections.

12. DOUG MAGRATH
 875 Waterloo St. N6A 3W7 519 432-0557
 Doug makes functional bowls and platters on local hardwoods as well as elegant decorative burl bowls, hollow forms, vases, threaded boxes and many smaller items. He has been a full-time woodturner since 1997.

13. ELLY PAKALNIS
 24 Alfred St. N5Y 2P4 519 438-6439
EllysPotteryProd@hotmail.com
 The discovery of a striking turquoise matte glaze with an exceedingly smooth surface complements Elly's functional pottery. Decorative surfaces lend a sense of spontaneity to her disciplined pieces such as mugs and dip dishes. Another facet of her work this year is painted bird imagery on large platters.

14. BERNADETTE PRATT
 419 Princess Ave. N6B 2B2 519 266-9641
mbernadettepratt@gmail.com
 Bernadette studied ceramic in London England and is known for her innovative use of Egyptian faience. Her latest porcelain pieces are an exploration of light and shadow. Her work has been carried at the Jonathon Bancroft-Snell Gallery in London since 2001.

15. RICHARD STURGEON – Metal In Fusion
 538 Adelaide St. N. (enter via 630 Lorne Ave.) N6B 3J4 519 318-8078
richard@metalinfusion.com / www.metalinfusion.com
 Flowing lines and a sense of motion define form and space in Richard's sculpture, from handheld studies to large-scale installations. His landscape, abstract and figurative works in metal accented with natural and fabricated elements explore emotional connections, meditations and reflections on our place in the world.

16. JAYNE CORNELIS – Fired-Up! Glass Arts
 538 Adelaide St. N. (at Princess) N6B 3J4 519 672-2787
firedupglassarts@gmail.com / www.firedupglassarts.com
 Jayne has been a glass-a-holic for the past 30 years. Starting in stained glass, she moved on to fusing and kiln-forming. Jayne's whimsical designs and inspirations transform glass from a fragile inert substance into creations with lives of their own.

17. AMANDA ROWE
 538 Adelaide St. N. (at Princess) N6B 3J4 519 438-9331
 Upper level Unit 218 (second entrance via 630 Lorne Ave)
artjar.creativegenius@gmail.com / www.artjar.ca
 Last year, Amanda showed us the eyes of soulful giant cats. We experienced the inner life of women through their handbags. Her dark wax-like mannequin figures froze us in a moment of time. And then she delighted us with a series of colorful relaxing landscapes. Wondering what's next? Come see!

18. CHRIS SNEDDEN – The London Clay Art Centre
 664 Dundas St. N5W 2Y8 519 476-9433
clayguy4u@rogers.com
 Chris maintains a studio in the London Clay Art Centre, the home of the London Potters Guild. For the last couple of years he has been combining imagery in layers, on thrown and altered forms and handbuilt wall pieces. Chris will be showing work with spontaneously painted surfaces contrasting with precise vocative images and texture.

19. JERRY VRABEC
 20 Swinyard St. N5W 4B6 519 438-2569
jvart@rogers.com / www.customartmetalwork.com
 Jerry is a self-described Renaissance man: part teacher, part technician, part inventor, and all artist. Educated in Prague, he creates unique metal gates, balconies and furniture as well as fine silver and gold objects.

20. BETH TURNBULL MORRISH – Turning Bull Pottery
 71 Stevenson Ave. N5W 1Y4 519 709-0053
turningbullpottery@hotmail.com / www.turningbullpottery.com
 Beth's signature ware includes whimsical teapots and serving pieces for all occasions. Decoration often includes expressive typography with stories and facts about food and culture, as well as patterns derived from nature. Her fun and functional artworks are safe for food and use in the microwave, oven and dishwasher.

21. SUSAN SKAITH
 9-567 Fanshawe Park Rd. N5X 3T4 519 672-9594
 Parking available in visitor spots and driveway. No parking on roadway. susanskaith@sympatico.ca
 Extensive travel in the Southwestern United States has influenced Susan's desire to use minerals and silver as the basis of her jewelry pieces.

22. ANGELA LORENZEN
 956 Blackmaple Ct. N5Y 5P9 519 659-8128
angela@angelalorenzen.ca / www.angelalorenzen.ca
 High realism acrylic paintings of subjects ranging from Canadian landscapes to horses and ravens will be featured at Angela's studio this year. Each painting is unique and inspired by the artist's own experiences. Several of Angela's paintings have won awards in juried art competitions.

23. LYNETTE RICHARDS – Rose Window Stained Glass
 427 Magnolia Cres. N5Y 4T2 519 673-4976
lynette@rose-window.com / www.rose-window.com
 Lynette is a painter on glass in the ancient tradition of European cathedral windows. She uses the same meticulous techniques as the medieval artists she admires. Lynette relaxes from this intensive work by drawing with coloured pencil on black paper en plein air. She restores stained glass windows and teaches all levels in her studio Rose Window Stained Glass.
